A fresh, bright and engaging holiday home that is designed as much for entertaining as it is for curling up on the sofa with a book.

With colour flowing through its considerable living space, perfectly complementing the subtle and warming shades of the wood finishes, it is the perfect home away from home.

There is a large family sized integrated fridge/freezer and plenty of useful storage space in the kitchen. In the lounge is a feature electric fire.

This holiday home is priced to sell on plot, with decking at Arrow Bank, Eardisland, Herefordshire
