What a lovely surprise to walk into the New Hampton and immediately feel at home.

A lovely colour palette that adds accents and notes in all the right places without overwhelming the interior (or my eyes!)

An open plan living area with large front windows and patio door give plenty of light and a feeling of space right through from lounge to kitchen.

A twin bedroom and family shower room compliment the relaxing feel of the master bedroom with en-suite w.c.

One where the photos and video do not do it justice and a viewing is highly recommended to realise just how good this holiday home is.
