ABI Clarendon

For sale at Arrow Bank Country Holiday Park

Is this the one that has your name on it? The ABI Clarendon on a south facing river side plot is a very heady combination!

With the large front and side decking included, stepping up to the Clarendon is one of those moments when you can see the perfect holiday home lifestyle stretching out in front of you.

The open plan living area enjoys the plot views from front to back. With the patio doors open and the sun shining, there are few better places to relax and unwind. There is a side entrance with vestibule, a family shower room opposite the guest bedroom, and a main bedroom with en-suite shower room.

Come and stand on the decking, hear the river charming its way downstream while the birdsong provides the harmonies... a very heady combination.
