You enter the Langdale through a full length glazed front door that floods the hallway with light. This is a brilliant space with coat hooks, shelves for shoes, and a full-length mirror so you can make sure your shoes match your hat before leaving! Dog owners – this is a perfect holding area for paw wiping.

Through the door to your left is the stunning open plan living area. The first thing you'll notice is the amount of light coming through your sliding patio doors – part of the floor to ceiling glass wall at the front of the home.

Because this is a new design for 2026, the colour palette could not be more on point. Stone and forest green are the key shades, giving the home a calm and peaceful feel.

The lounge area has a large 4-seater sofa with sofa bed under. It's complimented with a forest green single armchair that reflects the colour of the curtains. A large footstool can be used as extra seating or to make the sofa I-shaped for that chez lounge effect! There's an electric woodburner style stove for cosy evenings in.

The kitchen is a thing of beauty. The cupboard fronts are mint green, whilst the generous countertops are light oak effect. The 1 and a half bowl sink is a sleek matt black. All the appliances are Bosch, and include built in microwave, washing machine, dishwasher and fridge/freezer. The 5-burner gas hob sits over the oven. The dining table seats 4 and is positioned in front of floor to ceiling windows which brings so much light into the space.

Back through the hallway and you're heading towards the peaceful sleeping quarters. The twin guest bedroom has a single freestanding wardrobe with drawers whilst there's also storage under both beds. There's a compact dressing table with mirror over and USB charging points by both beds. This bedroom is served by the family shower room. This has a modern white suite, generous shower, and heated towel rail.

The master bedroom is a triumph of design chic! The stone and green theme continues with light oak effect fittings. Despite all it has to offer, this is a large bedroom compared to other similar homes.

The king size bed has storage under. There's a large freestanding wardrobe with drawers, plus a cupboard and drawer unit. The king size bed has storage under too, so there's bags of room to store clothes for all seasons! The dressing table has a large feature mirror with more shelves and drawer space. There are USB charging points on each side of the bed which also both have personal lights.

The compact ensuite is tucked away in the corner. It's light and bright with a large shower and heated towel rail.
