Willerby Vogue at Pearl Lake

This exceptional Willerby Vogue sits on a generous, sunny plot at Pearl Lake Country Holiday Park. With composite, wrap around decking you can really take advantage of the position for outside living.

You enter the Willerby Vogue via the wrap around decking through a side fully glazed door into the kitchen/diner. The wood throughout is light oak with dark, granite effect counter tops. The kitchen/diner is a generous space with lots of light coming in from its dual aspect windows, including an 'eyebrow' style window above the dining table. It comes with a dishwasher, integrated low-level fridge and freezer and bags of storage space.

Now, this is quite unique! To get into the lounge area from the kitchen/diner you go through sliding doors with glass insets. These act as a divider between the 2 areas but also keep things cosy during winter stays.

The lounge is another light and bright area with a 2nd 'eyebrow' style window over the opening patio doors giving direct access onto the front decking. There's a brown leather couch with 2 matching easy chairs, whilst a flame effect gas fire is the focal point of the room. A unit for your TV is built in, in the corner of the room.

Back through the living space and a door separates it from the sleeping area. There's a well-appointed twin bedroom with a wardrobe and over bed cupboards. The family bathroom has a full sized, curved bath - unusual in a home at this price point – with a shower over and curved shower screen.

The master bedroom is a quirky, reflecting the unusual external shape of the Willerby Vogue. So, the bed is on a diagonal if you will! This gives it a feeling of space and light with dual aspect windows plus a generous amount of storage space including a double wardrobe and a dressing table with mirror.

The Willerby Vogue is a large holiday home at entry level price and with the decking included it's a real bargain!
